

InterviewPenguin.com

Your Best Job Interview Coach Since 2011

24 Common Budget Analyst Interview Questions

- Why do you want to work as a budget analyst?
- Why do you want to work for our company?
- Tell us something about your education and experience in the field.
- How do you imagine a typical day in work?
- What will motivate you in this job?
- What are your salary expectations?
- How do you imagine a great boss?
- How would you describe an ideal working environment?
- Why did you leave your last job or why do you plan to leave your present job?
- Why should we hire you, and not one of the other applicants for this position?
- Describe a time you struggled with motivation in work/school. How did you overcome the crisis?
- Tell us about a time you experienced pressure. How did you handle it?
- Describe a conflict you had with one of your colleagues.
- What would you do if you thought that your superior was not qualified for their job?
- Describe a time when you had to deal with an angry or upset client (customer).
- Recall a time you had to defend a budget recommendation to a demanding executive. What was the outcome of the situation?
- Describe a situation when you did not agree with the opinion (or decision) of your superior or supervisor, and knew that they were wrong. How did you handle that?
- Describe a situation when you faced a particularly demanding problem or challenge in your personal life. How did that affect you in your job/studies?
- Describe a time when you struggled to build a relationship with someone important. How did you eventually overcome that?
- What is the first thing you look at when asked to review a budget?
- What are the most common mistakes people do in their financial analysis?
- Imagine an executive tells you there's some inconsistency between approved budget and actual expenditure at a department. What will you do?
- When you have to cut the overall expenses, what items on the budget do you check first, while trying to find areas to save money?
- What computer programs do you use in your work, and why?

Source and answers: <https://interviewpenguin.com/learn-how-to-succeed-in-an-interview-for-a-budget-analyst-job/>