

InterviewPenguin.com

Your Best Job Interview Coach Since 2011

20 Common Interview Questions for Process Engineers (personal, behavioral, and technical)

- Can you tell us something more about your education and experience?
- Tell me something about your latest job, the processes you engineered (or helped to engineer, if you haven't worked as a process engineer before).
- Where do you see yourself in five years time? Where do you see your career heading?
- Why have you decided for career in process engineering?
- What do you want to accomplish on this position in our company?
- What are your strengths and weaknesses?
- Why should we hire you and not somebody else for this particular position?
- Describe me a situation when you felt hopeless in your job, and didn't know how to progress.
- Describe me your most successful engineering experience, and tell us who helped you with your success.
- Describe the biggest failure of your professional career.
- Describe a situation when you reached a goal and tell us how you achieved it.
- Describe a problem you were unable to solve.
- Describe a situation when you were under pressure in work. How did you handle the pressure?
- Tell me about a time when you showed drive in work.
- Tell us about a conflict you had with one of your colleagues, and how you eventually managed to solve the conflict.
- What do we mean by a prototype?
- What is cascade loop and how it works?
- What can cause damage to a hydraulic pump?
- Do you have any questions?

Source and advice on how to answer the questions: <https://interviewpenguin.com/job-of-a-process-engineer-interview-tips-and-questions/>