Athletic Trainer Interview Questions – Get Ready for the Big Day

- Talk about your experience and qualification.
- Why do you want to work for us?
- How do you imagine a typical day in job?
- What are your salary expectations?
- What motivates you the most in this job?
- How would deal with an athlete that doesn't want to co-operate with you?
- What would you do if you examined the athlete, and knew that they faked their injury?
What would be your reaction?
- Describe a situation when you were under pressure in work (or say us how you'd handle the pressure, if you never had a job before).
- Describe a situation when you reached a goal and tell us how you achieved it.
- Describe a situation when you went above and beyond with your service (for the colleague, for the athlete).
- Describe a situation when you did not agree with the opinion (or decision) of your superior, and knew that they were wrong. How did you handle that?
- Describe a situation when you faced a particularly demanding problem or challenge in your personal life. How did that affect you in your job or in school?
- Describe a time when you struggled with motivation in job. How did you overcome the crisis of motivation?
- Describe a time when you struggled to communicate something to your boss, colleague, or to a customer (athlete). How did you manage to get your message over?
- Why should we hire you, and not one of the other applicants who try to get this job?
