13 questions you should ask yourself when deciding about your future career:

1. What is my present occupation, and role in a society?
2. What is the main purpose of my job, from my personal point of view, and from the perspective of our society (local community)?
3. Am I happy in my work, do I enjoy it?
4. What are my principal strengths and weaknesses?
5. Am I satisfied with my job? If not, what prevents me from being satisfied with it? Is it the job, or is it something within me, my own block?
6. Does my salary meet my expectations? Do I earn enough money to cover my living costs, and to enjoy life?
7. Is my education up to date, or am I missing something?
8. Have I made any progress in my career during the last five years? Do I earn more than before? Do I do a better job than before?
9. Comparing myself today, and myself three years ago, do I see any progress?
10. What position do I want to have at the time (3 years, 5 years, etc)?
11. How much money do I want to earn?
12. Where do I want to be in my personal life (starting a family, marrying, etc)?
13. What value do I want to bring to the society with my work?
