

InterviewPenguin.com

Your Best Job Interview Coach Since 2011

Interview Questions for Special Education Teachers

1. Why do you want to become a teacher?
2. Please tell us more about your experience with children with special needs.
3. What do you think characterize a good teacher, when we speak about special education?
4. What goals would you set for yourself in this job?
5. Is there any kind of student (disability) you would find it difficult to work with?
6. Can you name the main problems teachers face nowadays? How do these challenges relate to children with special needs?
7. A refugee comes to your class in the middle of the year, a new student. You can see that they have special needs, but they are not diagnosed. What would you do?
8. What is your philosophy when it comes to inclusion and segregation?
9. What teaching methods do you prefer and why?
10. How would you assess the progress of each individual student? Which assessment tools do you use in your work?
11. What would you do if a student was complaining about an assignment you'd given?
12. Do you think that all the students should be treated equally, or that there should be an individual approach to every student, in accordance with their abilities and potential?
13. Imagine that father of one of your students complained about something which was untrue. How would you react?
14. In your opinion, what is the impact of integration on general ed students? How would you deal with this phenomenon?
15. A parent calls you because they are worried about their child's low grades. What would you say to the parent? What actions would you take after such a call?
16. How would you handle conflicts between students?
17. What do you consider to be the toughest aspect of this job?
18. If you teach a lesson and your students don't seem to be "getting it," what do you do?
19. What are your expectations for the students?
20. What do you expect from the administrators and other staff in school/district?

Source and answers to all questions: <https://interviewpenguin.com/special-education-teacher-interview-guide-ebook/>