Your Best Job Interview Coach Since 2011

Sample answers to “What are your goals?” interview question

- I would like to have a good career in an international company (like this one), and grow both personally and professionally. My goal is to become an excellent financial analyst, and to pursue a career in this field.
- My goal is to be a part of a successful team, and to play a vital role in the success story of my employer. And I also want to quit smoking.
- My goal is to quit smoking. I’ve been smoking for ten years, and now I am in the process of quitting.
- My biggest goal is to lose twenty pounds in twelve months time. I’ve been overweight for some time, and I understand it limits me in work. I really want to get fitter and healthier.
- I try to run marathon under three hours. I am training hard and I hope to achieve my goal next year.
- I want to become a better mother and wife. I am aware of the mistakes I make, and I try to improve in the most important role of my life.
- I just want to have a good job, a job I enjoy doing, and be happy in my life outside of work.
- I want to do a good work in this store, help customers to be happy, and enjoy myself in work.
- My goal is to be a good colleague and employee, and to earn a decent salary that will allow me to support my family and the people I love.
