Sample answers to “Why did you choose your major?” interview question

- I applied for a med school because I always wanted to work as a surgeon. It is my ultimate goal and med school is the first step on this fascinating journey. Your school has an excellent reputation and it would be a privilege to study here.
- I chose finance and investment because I wanted to work as a financial analyst, and later perhaps start my own consultancy. Honestly, I had this dream six years ago, and as you can see, applying today for my first job with you, much hasn't changed. I believe that my school has prepared me well for this position.
- I studied engineering but as you can see, I apply for quite a different job now. My priorities shifted, and things that happened to me changed me profoundly in recent years. Yet I believe that everything relates to everything, and that I can use some of my engineering skills even in social work.
- To be honest with you, back in the day I struggled to decide. I enjoyed various things, and I was interested in various subjects. I almost felt like studying more majors at once. And so I talked to our school counselor, to my parents, friends, and eventually I decided for law. Here I am, applying for a job with your NGO. And I believe that my major has prepared me for this position.
- I have always had this special feeling for animals. Everything I have done since my childhood related to my desire to help the living creatures. Veterinary medicine was just yet another crucial step on this journey. I enjoyed my school a lot, and can't wait to put into practice what I have learned.
