

InterviewPenguin.com

Your Best Job Interview Coach Since 2011

Top 5 Sample answers to “Why are you interested in this position?” interview question

1. I just find it an excellent match to my strengths and preferences. I’ve always enjoyed interactions with other people, and home improvement is my great hobby. I know the tools, materials, brands. In my opinion, it is always easier to sell products you like, and know something about, because you can give good recommendations to the customers, and share with them your personal experience with the product. That’s why I am interesting in the position in your retail store, and not in some other sales job in retail.
2. I just see it as a next logical step in my professional career. I’ve been working as a financial analyst for five years now, acquired a lot of experience, and learned the ins and outs of cash flow in the business. I feel that with everything I’ve done and know, I am ready to work as a financial manager, and make something big happen for the company. Obviously the salary is also better, and the benefits, so I see no reason why I would not be interested in the position you advertise.
3. I just need a change. Without a doubt I may look overqualified for the job in a small cafe at the edge of the city center. But I’m interested in this position, because I’ve experienced a burnout, and cannot imagine working in the corporate world any longer. I am looking for a job with low stress levels, and little screen time. A position in which I’ll have real sincere interactions with people, and will be able to express myself. Money is secondary for me really at this point of my career. I hope you will give me a chance to prove my motivation and skills.
4. Who would not want to work for Amazon? I’ve always dreamed of working for one of the four biggest tech companies, participating on innovation, working on solutions and products billions of people use daily. I think that everyone dreams of having some impact in their life. And this is the impact I would like to have. What is more, I feel that with my engineering experience, and the programming languages I know, I am an excellent fit for the position. Really I see it as a win-win situation for everyone, and hope you will come to the same conclusion by the end of this interview.
5. Being honest, I just need a job to survive. It’s a tough economy out there. You borrow money once, twice, some things do not work out, you have some unexpected expenses, and soon enough debt collectors and executors come to knock on your door. This is my situation at the moment. That’s why I am interested in the position you advertise, though I know it is hard work, long hours, and the pay isn’t that good. But with my situation I cannot really afford to play a waiting game, trying my chances in interviews for jobs I likely won’t get. I need a job now, I am ready to work hard, and that’s why I am interested in this position.

Source and more answers: <https://interviewpenguin.com/why-are-you-interested-in-this-position/>